MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST BYLAWS

Article I PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."
2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.
3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the "Conference." The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

It joins with other Conferences and agencies of the United Church of Christ for the advancement of God's work in this world.

5. An Area is established by the Board of Directors and is composed of an Association or Associations informally grouped together for the convenience of the Conference.

Article II DENOMINATIONAL BASIS

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

Article III DOCTRINAL BASIS

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our forebears confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

MINUTES OF THE 199TH ANNUAL MEETING of the
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
June 5, 6, 7, 1998
South Hadley, Massachusetts

The 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ was called to order at 11:00 AM on Friday, June 5, 1998, in Chapin Auditorium, Woolley Hall, at Mount Holyoke College by Mr. Zack Deal, Moderator. The theme of the meeting was "Prepare Ye The Way." The Moderator welcomed the assembled delegates, especially those who were attending their first Annual Meeting of the Conference. He then introduced the Vice Moderator, the Rev. Ms. Elizabeth King, and the two of them offered a humorous dialogue as an overview of the work to be done by the Annual Meeting. Mr. Laurence Atkins, Co-Chair of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee, presented the proposed Standing Rules. After one editorial change, it was moved, seconded, and voted that "The 199th Annual Meeting adopts the Standing Rules as amended." In accordance with those Standing Rules a deadline for amendments of 35 words or more was announced for 4:00 PM Friday afternoon.

The Rev. Ms. Patricia Long, Co-Chair of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee, presented the Proposed Order of Time and Events. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "The 199th Annual Meeting adopts the Proposed Order of Time and Events as printed."

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Mr. Bennie E. Whiten, Jr., Conference Minister and President. Mr. Whiten acknowledged the presence of the Rev. Dr. Benjamin Griffin, the Rev. Dr. Donald Wells, the Rev. Mr. Robert Bachelder, the Rev. Mr. Douglas Mitchell, the Rev. Dr. Robert F. R. Peters, and Mr. Donaldson Wells as UCC leaders in related institutions and in the wider church. He then presented his proposed list of honorary delegates to the meeting. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "The 199th Annual Meeting designates the following persons as honorary delegates with voice, but not vote: Dr. Ruy Costa, Mr. Gordon Gilles, Mr. John Buck, Mr. Richard Walker, and Ms. Pattie Prunhuber."

The Moderator called attention to the reports of the Secretary and the Treasurer which were printed in the delegates' materials. He then called upon Ms. Anne Hagopian, Chair of the Conference Nominating Committee, who reported on that committee's work and the slate of names being presented for election by the Annual Meeting. Ms. Hagopian also asked delegates to add the names of the Rev. Dr. Michelle Rogers-Brigham and the Rev. REMOVAL OF BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY FROM BYLAWS 98-AM-2

The 199th Annual Meeting amends the Bylaws of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ by deleting Article XII "Boston Seaman's Friend Society" and renumbering subsequent Articles.

After making some announcements and giving information on the hearing process, the Vice Moderator recessed the meeting until 3:00 PM.

The Friday afternoon session of the 199th Annual Meeting began with music and worship in Chapin Auditorium. The Vice Moderator then called the business portion of the meeting to order and moderated a time of Speakouts.

The Moderator called on Ms. Hagopian, who presented the slate of nominees for officers; board, committee and commission members; and General Synod delegates. It was moved, seconded, and voted that nominations be closed. The Moderator called for the election of the slate of candidates. There being no further nominations and no contested positions, the recorder was directed to cast one ballot for the slate as presented.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Ronald Smith, who gave his report as Chair of the Board of Directors. Mr. Smith spoke of the Board's responsibility to be good stewards of the program, policy, personnel, property and money of the Conference. He summarized the Board's work of the past year as "futuring" for the Conference and he characterized his role as one who tempted the Board members and staff to look at things from a different perspective. Mr. Smith then suggested that good stewardship and "futuring" are critical to each other. He invited delegates to look at good stewardship from the perspective of "greedily and cheerfully taking from the Conference" all of the expertise that is available, including Suitcase Seminars, the talented and dedicated staff, THE GIFT AND THE PROMISE, and the website. In summary, Mr. Smith assured the assembly that the Conference is proud of its history and heritage but not committed to it. Rather, the Conference is committed to its future.

After a presentation by Mr. Gordon Gilles, of the United Church of Christ Cornerstone Fund, the Moderator called upon the Rev. Ms. Diana Augspurger and Mr. Peter Koch, members of the Board of Directors, for an explanation of the proposed Conference budget. Ms. Augspurger and Mr. Koch were joined by Ms. Dawn Hammond, Business Manager for the Conference. Ms. Augspurger reported that the past two years had seen increases in receipts for Our Church's Wider Mission Basic Support and for Fellowship Dues. In addition, there were surpluses during those same two years due to sound management and temporary decreases in expenses. These factors had caused the Board of Directors to report cautious optimism in spite of the fact that Basic Support has fallen far short of inflation. Reports from local churches with regard to their Basic Support goals for the coming year indicate a 3.8% increase. Ms. Augspurger also reported that for the first time in 36 years, membership in the Conference has increased. In addition, 255 churches had reported church school increases of 5% or more. The Board of Directors expressed optimism that income would meet projections. Ms. Hammond offered an overview of the Conference's net assets and Mr. Koch gave an explanation of the proposed actions before the 199th Annual Meeting and the four sources of income available to the Conference. He also offered explanations of the illustrative material presented to the delegates in support of those proposed actions. Mr. Koch and Ms. Augspurger reviewed the proposed actions which were formulated to support a balanced budget with a priority on beginning to raise the personnel compensation to a more competitive level while supporting increases in programming allocations for six of the seven commissions of the Conference. They reported that the presented budget was a cautious one that was well within the means of the Conference.

The Moderator called upon the Rev. Mr. Robert Gormbley, a member of the Commission on Leadership Development, who announced the fall availability of a handbook for trustees and treasurers which has been developed under the auspices of the Commission.

Mr. Whiten was called upon to recognize those people who had been ordained within the past year. He then honored those people who were celebrating 50 years of ordained ministry in 1998. The Rev. Ms. Evelyn Bates, the Rev. Mr. Donald H. Finley, and the Rev. Dr. Gabriel Fackre were unable to be present. The Rev. Mr. Robert S. Balfe, The Rev. Mr. Arthur W. Bowler, Sr., The Rev. Ms. Margaret L. Frerichs, and the Rev. Dr. Albert W. Welch were called forward to be recognized.

Minutes

The Moderator called upon the Rev. Mr. Robert Foster and the Rev. Ms. Beverly Duncan, members of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee, who reported on the Hearings on Resolutions which had been held. Hearing managers detailed discussions that had been held at the individual hearings. The Moderator then called attention to the newest resolution, submitted by the Board of Directors, concerning the 1999 Bicentennial Celebration.

The Commission on Communications presented a video detailing a new program to provide a year's Internet access to 50 local churches from the Conference. This program, to begin in the fall, is a result of funds generated by THE GIFT AND THE PROMISE capital campaign.

After making announcements, the Vice Moderator recessed the meeting until 7:00 PM.

The 199th Annual Meeting was reconvened at 7:00 PM on Friday by the Vice Moderator, who then moderated a time of Speakouts.

The Moderator called upon the Rev. Mr. Malcolm Bertram and the Rev. Ms. Rayann Cummings to present the proposed ratification of amendments to the United Church of Christ Constitution. These amendments must be ratified by 2/3 of the Conferences in order to facilitate the restructuring of the United Church of Christ. After some debate, it was moved, seconded, and voted that

98-AM-4

The 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges the Transition Coordinating Committee to assure that the peace and justice priorities of the United Church of Christ be budgetarily maintained at their historic level of commitment.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Whiten to give his report as Minister and President of the Massachusetts Conference. Mr. Whiten began with comments about the previous ratification vote and advisory and then announced that three members of the Massachusetts Conference had been recruited to serve on search committees for the newly restructured officer positions. In addition, the Rev. Mr. Richard Sparrow has been appointed as consultant to one search committee. Mr. Whiten continued his report with thanksgiving for the Conference staff, the volunteers, and the local churches. He lifted up the increase in membership last year, the first since 1962, calling it a doxological moment. He then expressed appreciation for the continued rise in giving to Our Church's Wider Mission Basic Support, but raised a concern about the 17% of local churches who do not contribute anything to the Conference, expressing his hope for 100% participation. Speaking of the wider church, Mr. Whiten lifted up the affirmative votes for full communion by the four denominations in the Lutheran Reformed Dialogue and reminded delegates that continued work will be needed to overcome 400 years of separation that preceded this historic vote. He then spoke of the upcoming Bicentennial of the Conference and the culmination of THE GIFT AND THE PROMISE capital campaign. In returning to the issue of staffing, Mr. Whiten expressed his thanks to the Rev. Mr. Stephen C. Gray, who will be leaving his position to become Conference Minister of the Indiana-Kentucky Conference, and welcomed the Rev. Mr. Dale Hempen as Associate Conference Minister in the Southeast Area. In closing, Mr. Whiten reminded delegates that as Christians all are called to speak out on the issues facing the Commonwealth and the nation.

The Moderator called upon Ms. Augspurger and Mr. Koch to present the proposed actions on the 1999 Conference budget. It was moved, seconded, and voted that

A Lifetime Achievement Award was presented to Ms. Joan Beauchemin of First Church in Marlborough Congregational, United Church of Christ.

The Moderator then recognized Ms. Mary Alice Stahleker, Chair of the Strategic Planning Task Team. She and members of the Task Team made a presentation explaining some of the work of that group using the seed packet as a metaphor of vision for the future.

The Rev. Ms. Cherie Daniels and Ms. Marge Eramo, along with other members of the 1999 Advance Planning Committee, presented a brief skit of the first 100 years of Conference history. Assembled delegates were given "I'll Be There" buttons to increase visibility of the upcoming celebration.

The Moderator introduced the Rev. Dr. Gilbert Rendle, Senior Consultant with Alban Institute, who gave the first of three presentations on the theme of the meeting, "Prepare Ye The Way!" Dr. Rendle entitled his talk "Living into the Wilderness" and spoke of the increasing distance between Biblical truth and cultural teaching. Since the 1950's, cultural teaching has moved from deferred gratification to instant gratification. Increasingly, ministry is done in an environment that is inhospitable. More and more what is heard in church and what is experienced in the world are not compatible. In fact, they might be considered two different languages. Dr. Rendle urged churches to learn the new language and enter into the wilderness of the world to learn, to understand, to trust, and to dwell.

Dr. Rendle's presentation was followed by a "gestured prayer" and liturgical dance reflection by Ms. Donna LaRue.

Following an introduction of the staff of the Conference by Mr. Whiten, the Church Growth Task Force of the Commission for Local Church Life and Renewal presented a skit comparing "First Church Jurassic Park" with "Lazarus United Church of Christ."

After announcements the Vice Moderator recessed the Annual Meeting until 4:00 PM.

After a presentation entitled "The Sights and Sounds of Chile", the Annual Meeting was reconvened at 4:00 PM by the Moderator who thanked Ms. Katrina Clinton for the Annual Meeting banners on stage. He then introduced the Rev. Ms. Alice Mann, Senior Consultant with the Alban Institute, who offered the second presentation on the Annual Meeting theme. Ms. Mann's topic was "Vital Churches: All Shapes and Sizes." She offered eight criteria for vital, quality churches: 1)empowering pastoral leadership, 2) gift-oriented lay ministry, 3) passionate spirituality; 4) functional structures, 5) inspiring worship, 6) holistic small groups, 7) need-oriented evangelism, and 8) loving relationships. Her presentation was followed by a body prayer and liturgical dance interpretation by Ms. LaRue, who was joined by Ms. Elizabeth Tucker and Ms. Michaela Rudis.

After a song break, the assembled delegates were invited to play "THE GIFT AND THE PROMISE Monopoly" with Mr. Jon McKenna, the Rev. Dr. Philip J. Mayher, and the Rev. Dr. William Abernethy. The Vice Moderator then gave announcements and recessed the meeting until Sunday morning at 8:30.

The Rev. Mr. Robert F. R. Peters, Executive Director of the Boston Seaman's Friend Society, gave a brief overview of the ministry of that organization and announced the new working name of Seafarer's Friend Society.

Mr. Smith, Chair of the Board of Directors, requested a moment of personal privilege to announce his request to the Commission on Leadership Development to make a priority the review of the newly voted Clergy Compensation Guidelines. At issue was the stipulation that any open position not meeting the guidelines would be advertised by the Conference as a part-time position. Mr. Smith also announced his appointment of the Rev. Dr. John Williams, a member of the Board of Directors, as liaison to the commission for this issue.

The Moderator then reintroduced Dr. Rendle and Ms. Mann, who offered the last of their presentations on the theme of the 199th Annual Meeting. In "Discerning the Future" the presenters emphasized the need to honor the voice of tradition and history in the midst of change. Discernment is of utmost importance before moving ahead. Dr. Rendle and Ms. Mann suggested that often in deliberations the voice of the very large "middle ground" is lost in the shouts of the two extremes. Discernment includes hearing all of the voices, so safe space must be made for all to speak. Local congregations and the Conference are on journeys of starting and stopping, Dr. Rendle and Ms. Mann said in conclusion.

After a song break, there was a time of "gestured prayer" and liturgical dance with Ms. LaRue. The Moderator then called upon Mr. Rufus Cushman, who was joined by Mr. Deal, Ms. Aney and the Rev. Dr. Paul Adkins for a special celebration of the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Stephen C. Gray, who has resigned as Associate Conference Minister for Stewardship and Financial Development to become Conference Minister of the Indiana-Kentucky Conference.

The Moderator introduced a video which provided information to the delegates about the 200th Annual Meeting and Bicentennial Celebration to be held in Worcester, MA, on April 24-25, 1999.

The video was followed by a presentation concerning the United Church Board for World Ministries given by Mr. William Nelson, the Rev. Ms. Cherie Daniels, the Rev. Ms. Marilyn Rossier, Dr. F. Robert Naka, and the Vice Moderator.

The Vice Moderator then introduced a video of a portion of the visit of the "Hechos" Youth Theater Team from the Pentecostal Church of Chile to the Massachusetts Conference.

Ms. King, reporting for the Business Committee, announced that there was no more business to come before the Annual Meeting. Ms. VanderVliet, reporting for the Credentials Committee, gave the final attendance as follows: 446 lay delegates, 274 clergy, 5 ex officii, 10 commissioned and/or licensed ministers, 76 visitors, 16 staff, and 53 others for a total of 880 persons present at this Annual Meeting.

Mr. Whiten then honored the Rev. Ms. Mary Giles and Mr. Peter Koch as retiring members of the Board of Directors. He then introduced the newly elected members of the Board of Directors: the Rev. Dr. Charles Close, the Rev. Ms. Rayann Burnham Cummings, Mr. Zack Deal, Mr. Wayne Frigard, and Ms. Arline Rayner. Mr. Whiten also recognized Mr. Deal for his work as Moderator and introduced Ms. King as the newly elected Moderator.

Mr. Atkins and Ms. Long recognized and thanked the many people who helped with the 199th Annual Meeting.

The 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ was adjourned at 11:00 AM for worship. The worship service, in Abbey Chapel, included communion and a sermon by Mr. Whiten.

Appendix C

1999 COMPENSATION GUIDELINES FOR CALLED AND INTERIM CLERGY

(for use with Clergy Compensation Booklet)

available from the Commission on Leadership Development, MACUCC)

The 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, recommends that all congregations meet the goals as outlined in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation. The guidelines apply to all full-time pastors, associates and assistants.

Because the pastor of a church is required by the United Church of Christ to be a highly educated and trained professional, the salary and housing package for pastors should be congruent with the compensation of other similarly trained professionals in the community. The total compensation package could be considered at least equal to that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service, special skills and training, and natural aptitude. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy, and the compensation package should be designed in such a way as to maximize the pastor's income.

The work schedules and compensation packages of local pastors should be healthy for the pastor and for the church. That would require a balance of time spent in the church's ministry and time spent with family and friends -- a balance of work and recreation, a balance of exercising the body and the mind, a balance of care of others and care for self.

Some churches, because of their smaller membership and/or financial constraints, are not able to provide an adequate compensation package for full-time pastoral service. They are encouraged to consider creative options, such as part-time, bi-vocational pastors or sharing a pastor with another congregation in the area in order to combine resources to offer adequate compensation. In congregations offering salary and housing below the minimum, the position will be considered, and advertised by the Conference, as a part time position and all prospective ministers will be informed of this through Area offices.

THE 199TH ANNUAL MEETING RECOMMENDS THAT:

1. churches pay a minimum entry-level cash salary according to the table below for a full-time pastor;
2. churches provide either:
 - a. a PARSONAGE with a furnishings allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan; or
 - b. a CASH PACKAGE sufficient to allow the minister to buy, furnish and maintain a median-priced house in the church's community; the minimum cash package shall be no less than 1/100 per month of the value of a median-priced home in the community; (for example: if a median-priced house in a community is $150,000, the church's minimum cash package for housing would be $1,500 per month, or $18,000 per annum)
3. full benefits and professional expenses be provided, as listed below; benefits and professional expenses are not to be considered part of the compensation package;
4. churches already at or above the minimum and also fully providing all benefits and professional expenses as outlined in below give at least a cost of living increase and consider a merit increase also; and
5. the work schedule of local pastors be a maximum average of 40-50 hours per week with no more than 3 evenings in a given week; in addition, pastors take at least 1½ days off per week.

BENEFITS AND PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

A. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

Since clergy are treated as self-employed for social security purposes, pastors must pay the current 15.3% on the cash salary plus housing allowance or on cash salary plus the fair market rental value of the parsonage plus utilities. Therefore it is recommended that churches pay 7.65% of the pastor's salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, 7.65% of fair market rental value plus cost of utilities for social security.

B. BENEFITS

1. annuity - minimum of 14% of base salary plus housing allowance (or 14% of 130% of base salary if parsonage is provided) paid quarterly to the UCC Pension Board
2. life insurance and disability benefit plan - disability income insurance and decreasing term life insurance through UCC program; cost is 1% of base salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, of 130% of base salary
3. group life insurance - additional decreasing term life insurance available through the Pension Boards for $50 per year
4. medical/dental insurance - available through the UCC Pension Boards
5. holiday and vacation time - usual holidays (or compensation time) and 4 weeks vacation per year
6. sabbatical time and funds (see Clergy Compensation booklet)
7. sick time - up to 30 days per year
8. maternity/paternity leave, including for adoption

C. PROFESSIONAL COSTS

Tax law allows deduction of business expenses on Schedule A only after the minister has spent more than 2% of family adjusted gross income on such expenses. THEREFORE it is important that churches reimburse or pay directly all costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expenses. These should include but not be limited to:

1. auto reimbursement - for use of personal car at IRS current rate of $.325 plus tolls and parking, or an automobile provided by the church
2. professional expenses - all expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Association, Conference, in participating in the wider church and community; subscriptions to religious and professional journals, etc.
3. continuing education

For reference, the following is an illustration of what is needed to fund the POSITION of a pastor (salary, housing, AND benefits and professional expenses) for a minister with 12 years experience, receiving a mid-range salary, serving in a church with 150-300 members:

COMPENSATION:

salary	$37,500
housing allowance (for those not in a parsonage, $150,000 house)	18,000

BENEFITS:

annuity (salary + housing x 14%)	7,770
life insurance and disability benefit plan (salary + housing x 1%)	555
group life insurance	50
medical/dental insurance (family plan)	6,096
social security offset (salary + housing x 7.65%)	4,246

PROFESSIONAL COSTS

professional expenses	1,500
continuing education	720
auto reimbursement (12,000 miles/year @ $.325/mile)	3,900
total needed to fund the position of minister	$80,337

It is understood that some churches may not be able to meet these guidelines immediately, and may need instead to institute them over a period of 3-5 years. It will be important in these instances to project a cost of living increase for each year and to make the necessary projection of total dollars above where the compensation package is at present. Then simply divide by the number of years it will take to reach the goal, and increase by that figure the annual compensation package over the 3-5 year period.

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH PENALTY

WHEREAS legislation to reinstate the death penalty in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts was defeated only by a tie vote in the House of Representatives on November 6, 1997; and

WHEREAS particularly heinous crimes recently have fueled an emotional public debate which will no doubt be rekindled by some candidates in upcoming elections; and

WHEREAS the 162nd, 163rd, 182nd, 191st and 192nd Annual Meetings of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ stated or reiterated that "The death penalty is both a symbol and an expression of an outmoded, ineffective and ... approach to the problem of capital crimes"; and

WHEREAS the Seventh, Ninth, Eleventh and Twelfth General Synods of the United Church of Christ have declared their opposition to the death penalty as a means of restorative justice; and

WHEREAS a preponderance of religious bodies oppose capital punishment as contrary to our understanding of the Christian faith and the New Testament call to redemptive love, mercy and sanctity of life; and

WHEREAS as Christians, taught to forgive seventy times seven (Matt. 18:21-22), we are not to allow fear or anger or racism or any other prejudice to interfere with a loving and compassionate approach to any issue; and

WHEREAS the death penalty does nothing to heal the pain of the families of murder victims except to reward them with vengeance, a reward which cannot be defended from a Christian standpoint; and

WHEREAS it has been demonstrated that the death penalty is applied discriminately toward African-Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans and poor persons of every race, especially toward anyone found guilty of murdering a white person; and

WHEREAS some who have been executed have been later found to be innocent, including at least 23 people during this century; and

WHEREAS in recent years at least three persons convicted of first degree murder in the Commonwealth were subsequently found to be innocent of the crime and would have been executed had the death penalty been in effect;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ reaffirms opposition to the death penalty and joins the call by the American Bar Association and many other organizations for an immediate national moratorium on the use of the death penalty; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges its members to think, speak, and act in ways that will strengthen opposition to the death penalty in Massachusetts, offering the following suggestions:

1. Find appropriate opportunities to discuss the ethical issues raised by capital punishment in view of Christian Scriptures, tradition, reason, and experience.
2. Circulate the text of this resolution as well as the policy statement of the Massachusetts Council of Churches both within and beyond your context.
3. Consider using opportunities for local newspaper "op ed" columns, letters to the editor, cable television programs, and other similar means, to stimulate community discussion.
4. Write (The State House, Boston, MA 02133) or call (617-722-2000) your own State Senator or Representative, expressing your opposition to the death penalty.
5. Use the opportunities in fall 1998 legislative and gubernatorial campaigns to make your views known to potential candidates and to elicit their views.
6. Join the "Moratorium Now" campaign of Equal Justice USA by obtaining an organizing packet and working on getting a death penalty moratorium resolution passed by your local church, city or town government, and/or other local organizations. RESOLUTION ON OUR STEWARDSHIP OF WEALTH

WHEREAS we cannot serve God and wealth (Matthew 6:24); and

WHEREAS the prophet Isaiah exhorts us to "loose the bonds of injustice, to let the oppressed go free, to share our bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into our houses" (58:6,7); and

WHEREAS Christ still comes to us in the "least of these" who are hungry, thirsty, strangers, naked, sick and in prison (Matthew 25: 31-46), challenging us to love our neighbor as ourselves (Luke 10:27); and

WHEREAS the profound suffering of our sisters and brothers and the degradation of Creation are too often treated as irrelevant by a seemingly indifferent Church; and

WHEREAS our faith and tradition assure us that we have power in the struggle for justice, despite our feelings of vulnerability and impotence; and

WHEREAS our capacity to so witness depends on our being rooted in fellowship and prayer;

WHEREAS poverty, hunger, homelessness, and disease are increasing here and abroad, millions of our sisters and brothers have their God-given dignity and personhood ignored and their lives reduced to roles as workers and/or consumers without rights; and

WHEREAS false notions of scarcity deny the truth that in the United States there is productive abundance enough to provide an adequate standard of living for all; and

WHEREAS because "the accident of birth" and chance are most responsible for conditions of physical or mental handicap, ill health and poverty, it is unacceptable to withhold the necessities of decent living to such individuals; and

WHEREAS exaggerated stories of "welfare queens" fraudulently draining money from the public treasury have resulted in legislation that causes the poor to become poorer, while greater expenditures of tax money fund "corporate welfare" that enables the rich to get richer; and

WHEREAS a study by Project Bread: The Walk for Hunger shows that one in four children in Massachusetts go to bed underfed; and

WHEREAS starting in December of 1998 many more Massachusetts children will lose their state assistance [Temporary Aid to Needy Families (TANF)] and be underfed because of the two-year time limit for aid established by the Legislature; and

WHEREAS improvements to the Food Stamp eligibility requirements proposed by the Massachusetts Legislature were vetoed by former Governor William Weld and the Legislature did not act to overturn that veto, so that today over 6,000 men and women are at risk of malnutrition; and

WHEREAS according to the Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance, over 100,000 Massachusetts families are qualified for and awaiting housing assistance; and

WHEREAS most of our privilege comes at the expense of others, and victimization is sustained by failure to recognize and confront this fact; and

WHEREAS our silence is interpreted as concurrence and/or complicity; and

WHEREAS the Church is obliged to challenge oppressive conditions and to oppose the suffering of our brothers and sisters;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ calls upon its members to acknowledge in prayer, fellowship, and action our connectedness to the whole of humanity, and to seek ways to be the stewards of our wealth and our support of an economic system which values individuals according to their worth in the marketplace instead of as persons with intrinsic worth endowed by their Creator; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges its members to contact and actively engage elected officials and candidates, insisting on the need for our local, state, and federal governments to "promote the general welfare" of all people, and to build domestic and foreign policy that provides benefits that are equitable for all parties; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges the Conference staff, member churches, and individuals affiliated with those churches to support promptly and actively by giving time and money to the advocacy and awareness raising efforts of the following:

1. The work of the Time Limits Project endorsed by Massachusetts Law Reform Institute and a coalition of advocacy groups, which seeks legislative action to mitigate the effects of the time limits on the use of Welfare (i.e. Temporary Assistance to Needy Families) through increasing the number of families who may be exempted and providing more realistic and effective opportunities for families to escape poverty;
2. The efforts being undertaken by Project Bread and other organizations to generate legislative and judicial action to help protect persons who are now unable to access critical food assistance;
3. The efforts to create affordable housing being supported by the Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless through its Faith Into Action Together program;
4. Individual churches devote at least one service during the coming year to address the implications of this resolution, and take action that is appropriate for their communities.

RESOLUTION ON 1999 BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ had its beginnings on May 28, 1799 when the Massachusetts Missionary Society had its first meeting; and

WHEREAS the 200th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference will be held in Worcester on April 24 and 25, 1999 culminating in a special celebration at the Centrum Centre on April 25 at 3:00 PM; and

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Missionary Society was formed to “diffuse the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ among the heathens and others in destitute places”; and

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Conference is embarking upon its third century; and

WHEREAS spreading the Gospel, reaching the unchurched and upbuilding congregations in destitute places remain the challenge of the 432 churches that comprise the Conference;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges and encourages its congregations to:

1. Celebrate this important anniversary by lifting it up in the churches and particularly noting ways in which each congregation has historically participated in this wider fellowship of churches;
2. Publicize the once-in-a-century celebration in Worcester on April 25, 1999; and make plans to commission and send members to the celebration, renting buses or vans so that members may attend as a group;
3. Send a full complement of delegates to the 200th Annual Meeting, which will be held in Worcester on April 24 and 25, 1999;
4. Engage in special efforts to raise $200 or more to support the anniversary and subsequent activities to strengthen local churches;

FINALLY, BE IT RESOLVED that the 199th Annual Meeting requests that all congregations in the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ regularly and diligently pray for the health and faithfulness of their Conference, so that in its third century it may honor its history and be mindful of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:8-20) to which its founders endeavored to be faithful.

We'll Be There - Come Join Us!

Two hundred years ago, members of Congregational churches came together to form what has become the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ. Now 432 churches strong, we will gather on April 25, 1999 to worship and to celebrate our heritage and to embrace God's future.

Information about the celebration will be sent regularly to our churches. For more information contact the Massachusetts Conference Office or visit our Web site at <http://www.macucc.org>
